

Sacrificing America's Youth for the Communist New World Order!

By David J. Stewart

Just as many suspected from the very beginning, the invasion of Iraq was never about removing Saddam Hussein, nor about liberating the Iraqi people, nor about preserving America's freedom. As with nearly everything else... follow the money! Iraq was invaded for one primary reason... to steal their wealth of oil deposits. Unbelievably, the children of American citizens are being woefully exploited, dying on foreign soil for an agenda that is clearly aimed at the demise of American sovereignty, i.e., a Global Godless Totalitarian Communist New World Order...

Federal Reserve Stealing Iraqi Oil Revenues

Remember, the neocons told us the invasion of Iraq and the subsequent murder of over a million Iraqis was all about deposing the evil Saddam Hussein and gifting the Iraqi people with democracy.

Sure, and I have a pony for sale.

Of course, back in 2002 and 2003, when the criminal neocons made these absurd claims, only half wits with GWB bumper stickers on their pickup trucks believed them. Sadly, a large percentage of the American public is comprised of half wits, while an even large percentage, apathetic and decadent, didn't give a wit about the invasion, so long as they or their children were not required to "serve," that is to say, having survived IEDs and suicide bombers, come down with a case of Gulf War Syndrome.

At the time, some of us said the invasion was divided into two roughly equal parts — first, the cynical neocon desire to split Iraq in three parts with a heaping dose of "clash of civilizations" chaos and murder injected for good measure, and second the neoliberal plot to steal Iraq's oil.

In regard to the first, the neocons provided plenty of evidence in their writings and white papers. Lieutenant-Colonel Ralph Peters — formerly of the Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff for Intelligence, within the U.S. Defense Department — even provided us with a map of this proposed carving up, not that the corporate media took notice.

As to the second, we now have confirmation that the banker and Wall Street neolib — more interested in good old fashioned looting than engaging in the process of balkanization — indeed accomplished their scheme to rob the Iraqis blind.

“Increased Iraqi oil revenues stemming from high prices and improved security are piling up in the Federal Reserve Bank of New York rather than being spent on needed reconstruction projects,” reports the Washington Times.

Out of $10 billion budgeted for capital projects in 2007, only 4.4 percent had been spent by August, according to official Iraqi figures reported this month by the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO). The report cited unofficial figures saying about 24 percent had been spent.

Meanwhile, some $6 billion to $7 billion from last year’s budget is “being rolled over” and invested in U.S. treasuries, said Yahia Said, director of Iraq Revenue Watch, part of the private watchdog group Revenue Watch Institute. [emphasis added]

So-called “de-Ba’athification” — the systematic removal and liquidation of Saddam’s functionaries and others — facilitated the process of robbery. “The country’s midlevel bureaucracy has either fled the country or been purged in de-Ba’athification, [and] a lot of ministers are politically appointed and not professional,” Yahia Said, director of Iraq Revenue Watch, told the Moonie controlled newspaper. “The result is that orders go out from the ministers in Baghdad, but there is no structure or staff at the middle level to carry out the instructions.”

As should be expected, the Bush administration tried to blame the victim. The “Bush administration, citing unofficial Iraqi data, reported in September that Iraq’s central government ministries had spent 24 percent of their 2007 capital projects budget as of July 15,” even though “this report is not consistent with Iraq’s official expenditure reports, which show that the central ministries had spent only 4.4 percent of their investment budget as of August 2007,” according to Said. “U.S. and foreign officials,” in other words neocons and their partners in crime, the financial sector neolib, “told the GAO that weaknesses in Iraqi procurement, budgeting, and accounting procedures had stymied the completion of projects.”

“Provincial governments, which had little or no control of their finances under Saddam Hussein, are struggling to spend the money they have under new budget systems, said Joseph Saloom, an adviser to David Satterfield, the senior adviser to Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice and coordinator for Iraq.”

As the corporate media has told us for years now, the Iraqis are to blame, as they are unable to get a “central government up and running,” never mind their country is a depleted uranium poisoned wasteland, the civilian infrastructure is decimated, crime is rampant, and various death squads run in the streets. Most “of the people had never been ministers before, they had never managed large budgets,” explained Mr. Said. It’s all the fault of those silly Arabs, don’t you know.

Meanwhile, the money is “piling up” over at the Federal Reserve, same as Federal Express, that is to say there is nothing federal about it. No doubt it will disappear soon enough, same as trillions disappeared from the coffers over at the Pentagon. [emphasis added]

It is hardly an exaggeration to say the Iraqis — indeed, the American people — are being played, same as a clueless bystander falls victim to a confidence game. But for the latter this is hardly a concern, mostly because the average person, distracted by plasma televisions and play stations, does not read the Washington Times and is thus none the wiser.

Dare I say it is a near perfect situation for the crooks at the Federal Reserve? [emphasis added]

A Bit of Communist History Concerning the U.S.

If you've never researched the evils of the Federal Reserve Scam, please read The Federal Reserve Is Evil. What a bunch of criminals! The Federal Reserve System was created in 1913 to finance the New World Order. Both Communism and Nazism reared their ugly heads in the 19th century, both opposing one another in methods, but agreeing in their ultimate goal, i.e., world domination! Few students today are taught the truth that Hitler's War Machine was financed by a host of American corporations through Wall Street. It was IBM that developed and manufactured the stamping machines to imprint numbers on the victims of the Jewish holocaust. The "Zyklon B" gas used to exterminated the prisoners was manufactured by I.G. Farben, a conglomerate of hundreds of companies, many of which were American companies...

On the eve of World War II the German chemical complex of I.G. Farben was the largest chemical manufacturing enterprise in the world, with extraordinary political and economic power and influence within the Hitlerian Nazi state. I. G. has been aptly described as "a state within a state."

The Farben cartel dated from 1925, when organizing genius Hermann Schmitz (with Wall Street financial assistance) created the super-giant chemical enterprise out of six already giant German chemical companies — Badische Anilin, Bayer, Agfa, Hoechst, Weiler-ter-Meer, and Griesheim-Elektron. These companies were merged to become Inter-nationale Gesellschaft Farbenindustrie A.G. — or I.G. Farben for short. Twenty years later the same Hermann Schmitz was put on trial at Nuremburg for war crimes committed by the I. G. cartel. Other I. G. Farben directors were placed on trial but the American affiliates of I. G. Farben and the American directors of I. G. itself were quietly forgotten; the truth was buried in the archives.

It is these U.S. connections in Wall Street that concern us. Without the capital supplied by Wall Street, there would have been no I. G. Farben in the first place and almost certainly no Adolf Hitler and World War II.

Truth is certainly stranger than fiction. Even more shocking is that Time Magazine voted Adolf Hitler as "Man Of The Year" in 1938!!! If you think that's bizarre, Time Magazine honored brutal Communist dictator, Joseph Stalin, as "Man Of The Year" in 1942. And now Time Magazine honors George W. Bush with his cold-hearted tyrant predecessors (Bush was voted Person Of The Year in 2000 and 2004).

Few people today realize that the man they honor every January, on Martin Luther King Jr. Day, was a Communist! Please read, Martin Luther King Jr. EXPOSED! The average young person today doesn't stand a chance at discovering the truth, unless someone like me educates them. All across America children are taught to praise and honor Martin Luther King Jr. as a great man; BUT in reality, he was a Communist, carefully trained and promoted by Communist organizations, to subvert America. After King's death, his widow, Coretta King, spent the remaining years of her life fighting for right... not for blacks... but for HOMOSEXUALS!!! Much of the moral decadence in America today has been wrongly justified in the name of "civil rights." What about God's rights? What about a child's right to life?

Greenspan admits Iraq was about oil, as deaths put at 1.2 million

"The man once regarded as the world's most powerful banker has bluntly declared that the Iraq war was 'largely' about oil.

Appointed by Ronald Reagan in 1987 and retired last year after serving four presidents, Alan Greenspan has been the leading Republican economist for a generation and his utterings instantly moved world markets.

In his long-awaited memoir - out tomorrow in the US - Greenspan, 81, who served as chairman of the US Federal Reserve for almost two decades, writes: 'I am saddened that it is politically inconvenient to acknowledge what everyone knows: the Iraq war is largely about oil.'

Where is America Headed?

We will soon experience Martial Law in the United States, within the next 10-15 years I believe (and likely much sooner). Why? Because Americans are slowly waking up to the realization that they've been had by their government. Our government's top leaders and an impotent congress have sold us into financial and economic slavery. The problem is that people don't get angry enough to do something about it until they start losing their homes, their jobs and their freedoms. We are at that point now.

I think with the next president (whether it be Democrat or Republican), we will see evil and crime unleashed from The White House like never before. I definitely expect to see another major terrorist attack in America. This will be necessary for the next U.S. President to receive the unquestioning support of most of the cowards in America, i.e., the ignorant masses of society that are willing to sell their souls for security. Benjamin Franklin was correct... Those who are willing to surrender their freedoms in exchange for security deserve neither! I guarantee you that if as much as a passenger bus blows up, the American public will be eating out of the next U.S. President's hand. Of course, this will lead to much more Police State development, expanded Homeland Security measures, FEMA expansion, thousands of mandatory highway security checkpoints, intense surveillance, et cetera.

The sad truth is that none of this is necessary. There is NO legitimate War On Terror. The masterminds behind the global NWO are the one's who have created the perfect enemy... Al Qaeda! How do you defeat an enemy you can't find? You can't! No wonder Senator McCain has promised the American people 100 more years of war in Iraq if he gets elected President! No thanks! How many more American lives are we willing to sacrifice for the selfish agendas of the global elite?

Willing Spiritual Blindness

Why are most people so stupid? The reason is because most people don't love the truth. We read in 2nd Thessalonians 2:8-10 in the Bible that most people will be deceived when the Antichrist comes... "And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved." Most people just don't care about the truth, and when you don't care about the truth, you can't discern the truth. This is why Pilate, when in the presence of Jesus Christ (Who is the Truth, John 14:6), said... "What is truth?" (John 18:38). Pilate couldn't see the truth because he had no desire for spiritual truth.

Satan is the god of this Sinful World

Satan is the god of this world (2nd Corinthians 4:4). America is under Satanic control by an international group of occult devil-worshippers. Many of Satan's followers operate in secrecy because their works are evil. This is why George W. Bush and John Kerry are forbidden from making any public statements regarding the Skull and Bones occult group they are members of. Remember, Jesus warned us about wolves who would come to us wearing sheep's clothing (Matthew 7:15). As strange as this all sounds, it is very real and true. One needs only look at the creepy New World Order pyramid and Luciferian all-seeing eye on the back of every one dollar bill to see the Devil's crowd at work within government. Should it be surprising that we see so much occult symbolism in Washington D.C.? Not at all.

America today is being controlled by a gang of thugs who have sold their souls to the Devil, literally. They mock our ignorance by placing occult symbols in plain sight, yet we don't question them. They and their families are committed to the cause of Satan. They control their puppets at the highest levels of the FBI, FEMA, the CIA, congress, the Supreme Court, the Senate, Homeland Security, et cetera... with The White House being the key element. These same puppeteers own the Federal Reserve Bank (which is neither federal, nor has any reserve committed to back U.S. currency). They have substantial ownership-rights-control in the largest of America's corporations, including control over the entire newsmedia spectrum. Thus, the image of reality being portrayed to the American public by the government and newsmedia is woefully distorted. Nothing has been more lied about than the Iraqi conflict.

We Shouldn't Support U.S. Troops Who are Doing Evil!

Everywhere we go nowadays in America we read banners and bumper stickers proclaiming... "We support our troops." I have a tremendous problem with that, and you should to if you love God and America. Some people will say that they "support the troops," even though they don't necessarily agree with what they're doing in Iraq. The problem with that mentality is that you are supporting evil. This is akin to a church member who knows a child is being molested by a church official, but remains quiet about the matter because of loyalty to the organization or individual. If a crime is being committed, then we ought not support the people committing the evil. U.S. troops are molesting Iraq, while America's churches sit back and wrongfully talk about the evils of Islam, meanwhile failing to say a word about the JEWISH Talmud that openly permits Jewish Rabbis to have sexual intercourse with 3-year old girls. Hypocrites! Zionism is a rot upon America's churches! No thanks to C.I. Scofield and his Zionist heresies! God loves Arabs just as much as he loves Jews (Romans 10:12).

What our troops are doing in Iraq is sinful. We should not support them while they are in the process of doing something evil. Granted, the greater sin is upon the Bush Administration for exploiting them, yet the troops themselves have to give account to God for their every action. Just because the U.S. government says it's ok to kill babies by abortion doesn't make it right. Just because a father tells his son to hit another boy with a baseball bat doesn't make it right. And just because the Bush Administration sends our troops to go conquer Iraq, even AFTER admitting that there were no Weapons of Mass Destruction, certainly does not make it right. My big question is this? ...if we wrongfully invaded Iraq based on a lie, then why are we still there? Why are we still killing people? We are we stealing their oil? I can assure you, Hellfire will be hot enough!

Our troops may be sincere, but they are murdering lots of innocent people, and stealing what belongs to the Iraqi people. We have no business being in Iraq. How many members of Al Qaeda are there? We've already murdered an estimated 655,000 innocent Iraqis! If Iraq was such a horrible place to live because of Saddam Hussein, then why is there still so much resistance to the American occupation of Iraq? Clearly, American troops are NOT wanted in Iraq. The only reason we are still there is to steal the oil. If the oil wells ran dry tomorrow, our troops would be on the next plane home. Wake up America!

"Resistance To Tyranny Is Obedience To GOD" – Thomas Jefferson

Conclusion

I don't mean to be unkind, but that's your son or daughter out there in the military being killed, or maimed, or made ill for life. Many soldiers who return from Iraq will bare children with birth defects because of Depleted Uranium. Others soldiers won't be able to have children at all because they are now sterilized from the radiation. Why should you and your children take such a risk to make the banking cartel richer? All that oil in Iraq is being stolen, and the proceeds being deposited into a New York Federal Reserve Bank (as we learned in the preceding news article). Read here about what the Iraqi people are suffering today, while the criminals who conquered their nation STEAL all their oil. This is beyond evil. The whole Iraqi mess is just sickening, and is a shameful disgrace upon America. Our young people are being exploited to steal Iraq's oil. The profits aren't going to Iraq or America—they're going into the pockets of the banking cartel.

Until enough Americans say "No" to government crimes and abuse of power, it's only going to get much worse. At a minimum, we ought not volunteer our children's lives on the alter of Baal, to die for the cause of Anti-American agendas.
